

LINDA G. ERICKSON

STAR POWER CONSULTANT

Linda G. Erickson is a dynamic force in the world of public speaking and presentation delivery. As the founder of Star Speakers Academy, her mission is clear and compelling: to empower individuals to deliver unforgettable messages. With an impressive 25-year career as a sales and marketing executive, Linda has mastered the art of high-profile public speaking, captivating audiences ranging from intimate groups of 25 to grand gatherings of 3,000.

Linda's remarkable ability to connect with her audience stems from her exceptional communication skills, both written and spoken. Her expertise doesn't stop at the podium; she also made a significant impact on television. She was the driving force behind the successful series, "Empowering Women," a groundbreaking program that won the Best Talk Show Award in cable in the Sacramento area. This influential show inspired countless women to "design a life they would love to live."

Beyond her television success, Linda is a dedicated member of Toastmasters International, where she earned the prestigious credential as a Competent Communicator. She co-founded the corporate Toastmasters Club, "Event Speak", at the Walter E. Washington Convention Center, and served as VP of Membership, showcasing her leadership and commitment to fostering effective communication.

Linda's talents have taken her to the global stage. She was selected as one of only 60 speakers worldwide to present at the Global Empowerment Virtual Summit on International Women's Day, March 8, 2024, hosted by Win Win Women. This honor underscores her influence and dedication to empowering women. Today, International Women's Day engages over 1,000,000 participants globally through various platforms.

Linda's journey continues to inspire and empower, leaving an indelible mark on every stage she graces.

