

AMY CARVER

STAR POWER CONSULTANT

Amy's passion is to inspire, ignite, foster, and equip individuals, teams, and organizations in achieving breakthrough levels of contribution and success.

Her 30 plus year experience in training, facilitating, and speaking engagements include Transformative Communication, Executive and Emerging Leadership Development, and 'Healthy' Conflict Engagement.

Amy's experience includes 20 plus years with Landmark Worldwide representing and delivering transformational programs and seminars with global impact. She also served 9 years as senior Leadership Program Designer, Facilitator and Coach with 2130 Partners LLC, and held membership in Vistage Worldwide honing her scope and acumen in leading edge strategies for success. She attended University of California, Irvine and holds multiple Business and Professional Certifications from Landmark Worldwide, Mediation Training Institute International, Quad Red Assessment (Organizational & Leadership) Facilitation.

Client affiliations include Microsoft, CWS Capital Partners, Hines Growers, Walter E. Washington Convention Center DC, Bryan Cave LLP, Landmark Worldwide and Vistage Worldwide.

Amateur cheffing, joyful gatherings and conversations, experiential learning, and gardening are her favorite things.

